Trip Overview

Iceland offers an endless number of diverse attractions – striking landscapes, unique culture and the vibrant capital of Reykjavik.

This trip is designed to introduce you to the stunning nature of Iceland, as well as the exciting buzz of Reykjavik, the world's most northerly capital.

You will spend your first night at the Northern Lights Inn, a cosy hotel with comfortable rooms, delicious food and a balcony especially for viewing the Northern Lights. It is also only a short walk away from the Blue Lagoon, a geothermal spa and sanctuary of relaxation. Entrance to this is included in the price of your holiday, so you can visit at your own leisure. Make the most of the experience and give yourself enough time to unwind in the cleansing hot water and absorb the surrounding volcanic landscape.

You will then be transferred to the city, where you will be based in Hotel Oðinsve, a boutique hotel in downtown Reykjavik. The hotel is located in a peaceful residential area, yet is only a few steps away from Reykjavik's major museums, shopping streets and restaurants. The hotel places high importance on welcoming and personal customer service, ensuring that you feel at home during your stay.

Spending three nights in Reykjavik will allow you to fully explore the city, while also using it as your base for travelling to more of Iceland's famous attractions. We can help you tailor your trip and add these to your holiday with ease to ensure that you fulfil your ideal itinerary.

We have, however, included two activities to your itinerary that we feel cannot be missed. The first is a whale watching trip to Faxaflói Bay, where frequent sightings of humpback and minke whales occur. The second is an activity that is essential when visiting Reykjavik in winter - a Northern Lights Tour, which will begin straight from your hotel. You will head out into the darkness on a hunt to spot the breath-taking colours and shapes dancing in the dark Arctic sky.

This four night holiday provides you with the chance to experience some unmissable activities and to customise your trip to suit your personal wishes. This is a fantastic trip on an amazing and diverse island.

BLUE LAGOON

Staying in Keflavik provides you with the opportunity to experience the amazing, rugged landscape of the Icelandic countryside before heading into the bustle of Reykjavik city. Your hotel is only around half a mile from the famous Blue Lagoon, which you are free to visit at your leisure once you have eaten breakfast at the hotel, as entry is included in your holiday price. There is a free shuttle from the hotel, or if you want to venture out into the snow, it is only a 15-minute walk away.

REYKJAVIK AND NORTHERN LIGHTS TOUR

Today you will have breakfast in the hotel and then you are left to your own devices and Reykjavik is so rich in culture, architecture and cuisine that you will find it easy to fill your day. You can visit museums and contemporary art galleries, explore the many cafés, bars and restaurants or admire the modern architecture of the city. Although Reykjavik is so packed with things to do and see, it is a relatively small city and is easy to explore in only one or two days.

Once you feel that you have seen what Reykjavik has to offer, you can use your location as a base to explore more of Iceland's attractions. We can arrange for you to snorkel between continents, or enjoy a hike on ancient glaciers and behind waterfalls. (Details of the available options can be found in the 'Personalise' section of the holiday page).

In the evening you will be picked up by your driver and your hunt for the Northern Lights will begin, as you leave the city behind and head out into the darkness with an expert guide. You will travel in a custom-made 4x4 super jeep that is designed to take you off the beaten track and to locations that cannot be reached by most vehicles. With some luck, you will see the phenomenal Northern Lights swirling in the sky.

Remember to wear warm clothes – there is no such thing as too many layers in Iceland in the winter!

WHALE WATCHING

After breakfast, you will make your way to the old harbour in Reykjavik, which is within walking distance of your hotel. There are more than 20 species of whale in the waters around Iceland and the island has an extremely high success rate for spotting the ocean's giants.

You will be taken on a three-hour boat tour and will be accompanied by expert guides and crew who know exactly how to give you the best chance of seeing the whales up close. The boat is large and comfortable; since it will be cold, you can enjoy the view from the cosy interior.

Your destination is Faxaflói Bay, where minke and humpback are among the most commonly spotted species. Whales may not be the only thing you see, as white-beaked dolphins and harbour porpoises are commonly sighted on the trip. The experts on board will keep you informed of what you are seeing.

This evening you are free to spend your final night exploring Reykjavik's cuisine scene. If you want some recommendations, feel free to ask our travel experts who will be happy to help.

Reykjavik - Snorkelling Between Continents

Snorkelling at the Silfra Fissure in Thingvellir National Park is an unforgettable experience as you gaze down through some of the world's clearest water and find your eyes drawn down to the bottom of this crack in the Earth's crust.

This fissure has been created by the tectonic plates that underpin Eurasia and America drifting apart. It is a place where you can literally snorkel between continents.

The water's purity stems from the fact that it started life as glacial melt some 50 kilometres away and has made its way, over numerous decades, through volcanic lava to rest in the fissure.

The price includes all equipment including dry suit, flippers and snorkel and you will be in the water for around 30 minutes.

ACTIVITIES

South Coast, Waterfalls and Glacier Hike

Available on Day 3, this coach trip will have you heading off towards the majestic south coast with its farming lands, thundering waterfalls, powerful volcanoes and majestic glaciers.

Your first stop will be Seljalandsfoss Waterfall where you will have the opportunity to walk behind the wall of water before the tour continues to a gentle hike on the ancient ice of a glacier with a knowledgeable and certified glacier guide.

After that, you will take a leisurely stroll along the black sand beach of Reynisfjara, which is famed for its basalt rock stacks which rise from the sea. Icelandic legend says they were trolls turned into rock by the rising sun when they came home late after a fishing trip.

The tour then continues with a sightseeing trip that will take in views of the famous volcanoes, Hekla and Eyjafjallajökull, and the Westman Islands, which rise steeply from the ocean just a few kilometres off the coast.

The guides reserve the right to alter the itinerary if weather conditions change and the glacier walk is cancelled. This tour will last around 11 hours and so it will surely be a day to remember.
