* Please note that we do not include activities at Kasbah d'Eau although there is an extensive range of options that can be booked locally. You can go through these after checking in at this wonderfully relaxing resort. That way, you can decide exactly how busy or how laid-back your time there will be. If you would like to indulge your sense of adventure you can try camel trekking, horse riding, surfing, quad biking, an Essaouira souk visit and cookery lessons.

Trip Overview

Starting in Marrakech, you will spend your three nights at Riad Nyla, where you can dwell in the tranquility and enjoy a relaxing swim in their rooftop pool.

On a tour of the fascinating souks, you will discover a variety of sights, sounds, and smells as well as learn about the locals way of life. You will also travel to Morocco's breath-taking Atlas Mountains, which are a must see on any visit to this country.

Next up is a night under the stars. Spend a night in a luxury bivouac in the Agafay Desert and tick off another bucket list activity.

The second part of your trip takes you to the area of the historic harbour city of Essaouira. At the magnificent Kasbah d'Eau hotel, a stunning location with a typical Moroccan design.

The attentive and accommodating staff will give you the chance to sit down, talk, and plan your own schedule here. You can choose your own activities (payable locally) and set your own pace. A variety of cultural, culinary, and adventurous options are available.

You should absolutely take advantage of the hotel's amenities when you have free time. Relax in a classic hammam steam room, splash around in the pool, or enjoy an immersive cookery class.

Agenda

Please note the order of activities is subject to change

DAY
1

ARRIVAL AND WELCOME

Upon arrival in Marrakech, your transfer vehicle will take you to your accommodation at Riad Nyla, approximately 20 minutes away.

Once you have checked in, you can make yourselves at home in your accommodation for the night. Why not try the hotel restaurant for dinner or you can ask them for a recommendation in the local area.

Included Meals: None

2

DAY IN THE ATLAS MOUNTAINS

Fill up at breakfast in preparation for a lovely excursion exploring the Atlas Mountains.

A two-hour transfer will take you to your starting point, the village of Imlil, from where you will spend the day trekking in this scenic region with a mountain guide.

Mount Toubkal, the highest peak in the Atlas Mountains, looms in the background as you take to the trail. You will walk through small hamlets and woods filled with walnut trees, weaving up to higher ground along the mountain track.

The views are incredible and this is a marvellous way to show off the natural side of Morocco, which is easily missed when just sticking to popular urban attractions.

There will be the chance to visit at least one village in the area for a sense of life in these rural parts of the country, and lunch will be provided. The trip can be tailored to the needs and abilities of the group also.

You will return to Riad Nyla in the late afternoon.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

3

THREE HOUR SOUK TOUR

You will all be whisked away for a fabulous tour of Marrakech's impressive souks. Potters, olive-sellers, tanners, dancers, magicians...the list of people and stalls you will encounter here is endless.

Cameras should always be at the ready, and given the wild mix of life, every photo opportunity is likely to be as remarkable as the next.

After this bustling day, you can sit back and relax during your last evening at Riad Nyla.

Included Meals: Breakfast

4

SLEEP UNDER THE STARS

Experience the magic of the Agafay desert with a unique stay at either Inara or Scarabeo Camp. You'll stay in a luxury glamping suite with panoramic views of the stunning Atlas Mountains and sleep under the star-studded sky.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAYS
5 TO 7

SET YOUR OWN ITINERARY

Our pick

Spend a night in The Enchanting Marrakech Medina

If you would like to extend your trip and spend a night or two in the ancient heart of this vibrant city, please speak to one of our Travel Experts about your requirements and we will come back with the perfect riad for you! Many riads also have rooftop terraces with stunning views of the city. These are great places to relax and enjoy the sunset or people-watch.

The medina itself is a maze of narrow streets and alleyways, and it is easy to get lost. However, this is part of the charm of the medina and that extends to your arrival. Your transfer will drop you and your luggage off at the gates of the medina. One of the knowledgeable porters will put your luggage on their trolley and will take you straight to your riad. It is useful to pay attention to the route as it will help you get your bearings but your hosts will also be able to provide you with maps and directions once you are checked in.

Included Accommodation

Riad Nyla (Nights: 1-3)

A fabulous riad restored by an Italian architect, with unparalleled attention to detail. Out of all the small riads, this one likely boasts the finest spa in the medina, inclusive of an indoor pool. The roof terrace offers a plunge pool and plenty of space for relaxation. Please note that Riad Nyla is an adults only accommodation.
