In Brief

This itinerary introduces you not only to the landscape and culture of Madeira, but also the cuisine that has arisen from the unique combination of European tradition and the abundant tropical fruit and vegetables that grow here. Experience serene Levada walks, exhilarating jeep tours and immersive culinary experiences on this varied itinerary.

Our Opinion

"The diversity of this tiny island's landscape is reflected in the bounty of flavours that grace its tables. From fresh seafood and tropical fruit to the famous Madeira wine and of course a glass of Poncha, a local rum punch, to enliven the soul! Madeira is a celebration of natural abundance and vibrant island culture."

Trip Overview

Madeira was once a stopping off point between the old and new worlds, but now this island paradise has forged its own unique identity. This is an island where dramatic landscapes and rich culinary traditions meet and our itinerary affords the opportunity to embrace all aspects of life on Madeira. Your week balances adventurous moments with time to appreciate the natural beauty of your surroundings, where lush forests meet rugged coastlines and an ocean teeming with life.

A Wine & Skywalk Jeep Tour, offers panoramic views of the island and a taste of Madeira's world famous wines. A half-day walking tour along the Referta Levada provides a relaxing look at the island's verdant interior and how the Levadas have allowed the local farmers to make the most of the mountainous land, and a half-day Jeep Tour focusing on Country Delights & Farmers Market will give you a taste of their wonderfully fresh produce. As well as a mind-blowing selection of fruit and vegetables you will find honey cakes and biscuits, fennel flavoured candies and if the sun is over the yard arm you can even treat yourself to a refreshing glass of "Poncha," a blend of sugarcane rum and citrus juices.

The culinary theme continues with a full-day Wine & Food Tour, allowing you to delve deeper into Madeira's gastronomic culture, sampling local specialties and learning about the island's culinary traditions. In addition, jeep tours to the Northeast and Northwest will reveal more of Madeira's diverse landscapes, from its dramatic coastal cliffs to ancient Laurel forests.

Whether you are seeking breathtaking views, thrilling adventures, or a taste of local life and cuisine, this itinerary promises an unforgettable Madeiran escape.

Agenda

Please note the order of activities is subject to change

DAY 1 ARRIVAL

Your transfer will meet you at the airport and take you to your chosen hotel so you can settle in and get ready for your week of activities on Madeira.

The order of activities as listed here is for illustrative purposes and the actual running order will be confirmed in your final travel documents.

Included Meals: None

DAY 2 JEEP TOUR: WINE & SKYWALK - HALF DAY

This exciting off-road Jeep tour will introduce you to the changing landscapes of Madeira. Your experienced guides will showcase the island, from its mountain roads and emerald green forests to secluded coves.

But that is not all! You will also have the opportunity to sample some of Madeira's fine wines. You will make stops at hand-picked locations to taste a variety of local wines, accompanied by tapas which have been chosen to compliment their flavour. You will also make a stop at the Cabo Girao cliffs to savour the amazing views from the glass skywalk.

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 LEVADA WALK "REFERTA" - HALF DAY

This easy and well-paced guided walk takes you to the north of the island. Your route runs parallel to the sea and you will see some stunning highlights along the way, such as the Penha d'Águia, a spectacular rock formation that rises to a height of 580 metres.

The Levada itself provides water to the neatly laid out terraces cut out into surrounding hillsides. You will see a selection of mediterranean crops being grown as well as more tropical species like sugar cane, bananas, custard apples, mangoes, and passion fruit. And you may even be greeted by a cheerful farmer who lives in one of the orange roofed houses among the fields.

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 JEEP TOUR NORTH EAST - FULL DAY

Today's guided jeep tour takes you through the untouched beauty of the Northeast coast of the island.

Highlights include a visit to the charming village of Santana with its iconic thatched houses which have adorned many a postcard over the years. Your guides will explain both the natural and man-made history of this pristine landscape. You will truly appreciate the area's rustic charm when you visit an historic water-powered sawmill.

Later you can savour the rich flavour of the local sugar cane rum in a fascinating steam-powered distillery.

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 COUNTRY DELIGHTS & FARMER MARKET - HALF DAY

Experiencing the local farmer market in Santa da Serra can be a great way to immerse yourself in Madeiran culture. As well as providing a shop window for the ridiculously rich array of local produce and crafts, it also serves as a social occasion for many local people and there is often a lively atmosphere and sometimes even traditional music.

You can sample Madeiran delicacies like bolo do caco (a type of flatbread) and espetada (grilled beef skewers) and a wide selection of pastries and sweets. So, whether you want to shop, dine or just people watch with a glass of poncho in your hand, a visit here is definitely time well spent.

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6 THE NORTH WEST JEEP TOUR - FULL DAY

Breathtaking views are guaranteed on this tour, as you travel on Madeira's old roads (and even off-road) in search of the island's most stunning destinations. The Northwest is famous for its dramatic cliffs overlooking the Atlantic, as well as lush green valleys and Laurissilva forest of the interior.

Highlights of the tour are the elevated Paul da Serra plateau with its otherworldly scenery and Porto Moniz where it is possible to bathe in the lava pools formed along the coast.

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 FOOD AND WINE TOUR - FULL DAY

Today's tour is guided by an expert in Madeiran wine and you will be in their company as you explore the island's vineyards and meet producers. You will sample 12 local wines across visits to four vineyards and enjoy a delicious Madeiran lunch.

The tour features both the iconic fortified wines, for which Madeira is famous, as well as some lesser-known still wines, both white and red. The day begins at Blandy's Wine Lodge in Funchal, followed by a scenic journey to São Vicente, where you will taste wines at a local vineyard. After lunch, you will head to Seixal for another tasting, and finish the tour with a stop at Barbeito's in Câmara de Lobos.

The meeting point for the Food and Wine Tour is at Blandy's Wine Lodge in Funchal. As this is a very central location and close to many hotels, we do not include a transfer. However, if you are staying a little further away, we will gladly arrange a transfer for you – please just speak to a travel expert for a quote (additional costs apply).

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 DEPARTURE

Today, following breakfast, your transfer will take you back to Funchal airport in good time for your flight home.

Included Meals: Breakfast

Our pick

Canyoning

In a beautiful valley in rural Madeira, lies a hidden green canyon. During this activity, you won't just discover the canyon, you will travel through it as you follow the water on its journey downstream.

Canyoning is a safe, yet adventurous activity that allows you to travel in the direction of the water as it makes its way through the picturesque canyon. On your journey, you'll come across four different rappels varying in altitude up to 17 metres. There's also two small slides and two small jumps (optional).

Prices available on request.

Duration: half day

Available: year-round, with a minimum of two participants

ACTIVITIES

Half Day Kayaking and Snorkelling

There's no better way to appreciate the coastal waters of Madeira than to get out onto it.

Using a sit-on-top kayak, you'll paddle out to the Underwater Nature Reserve of Garajau. Established in 1986, this reserve is full of marine life including large fish and manta rays. You'll hopefully see the different species as you kayak along the water but you'll also have plenty of time to snorkel and enjoy the underwater sights too.

Prices available on request.

Duration: approximately two hours

Available: Monday to Saturday, May to October, with a minimum of two participants.

Kayak capacity is two adults and one child. Adults may have to share a kayak, depending on group size.
