Tromsø is a famed winter destination, hailed for its Northern Lights potential but during the summer, the skies above the city are just as mesmerising, thanks to the Midnight Sun. The endless daylight during your three-night stay means you will have plenty of time to discover the stunning surrounding nature, the vibrant culture and the wonderful food on offer.

As the third-largest city in the Arctic Circle, Tromsø's cultural scene has a real buzz and during the long summer days, you can expect festivals, delicious fresh and local food, and lively cafes and pubs all amongst a backdrop of breathtaking natural scenery.

Two of your nights will be spent in the heart of the city, in a prime location so that you can sample the local restaurants, explore the fascinating museums and admire the stunning nature that envelopes this vibrant city. We've included a fantastic Midnight Sun RIB safari that takes you speeding across Tromsø's surrounding waters to nearby islands and on the lookout for different wildlife species found in the area. You can also add on some brilliant Arctic activities such as trekking with huskies or sea kayaking - more details can be found in our 'Personalise' tab.

To really make the most of the stunning untouched nature found just outside of the city, you'll also spend a night on the island of Kvaløya for an unforgettable glamping experience. The luxurious tents here come equipped with cosy double/twin beds and a panoramic window to completely immerse you in the remote wilderness surroundings and the gentle light of the Midnight Sun.

For a short break that mixes exciting city life with untouched nature and a peaceful retreat, this three-night break is an all-encompassing trip to show you the best of Northern Norway.
